Hvitfeldtska gymnasiet

– a modern school with traditions

The school dates back to 1647 when it was founded by Swedish Queen Christina. It was later named Hvitfeldtska in memory of Margareta Hvitfeldt, who in 1664 donated her entire fortune to make studies possible for boys without means.

Located in the very centre of Gothenburg, the historic school buildings are updated and outfitted with modern technology resources. The staff consists of highly qualified and experienced international and Swedish teachers. The International Baccalaureate (IB) Programme was started in 1989 at Hvitfeldtska. Since 1990 the school is a member of ECIS (European Council of International Schools).

“One of the advantages of an IB curriculum is its structure and quality. It’s a coordinated Programme, well established, well known and well respected. We know the quality of IB courses, and we think the IB curriculum is terrific.”

Christoph Guttentag

Director of admissions, Duke University, USA

Why choose the IB Programme?

The IB Diploma Programme is an international pre-university programme, taught in more than 140 countries worldwide. The quality of the programme is guaranteed by an independent IB organization.

It is a course designed to give students a strong academic foundation, and prepare them for life as global citizens, as the IBO mission statement says: “The International Baccalaureate aims to develop inquiring, knowledgeable and caring young people who help to create a better and more peaceful world through intercultural understanding and respect.

To this end the organization works with schools, governments and international organizations to develop challenging programmes of international education and rigorous assessment.

These programmes encourage students across the world to become active, compassionate and lifelong learners who understand that other people, with their differences, can also be right.”

Career possibilities

Not only is the IB Diploma well respected at universities in Sweden, but also a fantastic opportunity to get a worldwide recognised qualification and career. The IB Diploma opens many doors. Many of our graduates have been accepted into prestigious universities in Sweden such as Chalmers, Handelshögskolan, and Karolinska Institutet within a wide range of disciplines such as medicine, law, languages, political science, economics, and engineering.

Many others have chosen to study abroad in the UK, the USA, Canada, Australia, China, the Netherlands and other countries. Our programme and our staff enables students to excel. Every year several Hvitfeldtska graduates gain entry to top universities: MIT, Yale, Princeton, Oxford, Cambridge, LSE, Imperial College, and UCL to name a few.

“IB students were more likely to: enroll in a top 20 HEI; receive honours degrees or awards, in most subject areas; continue on to further studies; and be employed in graduate level positions and higher paid occupations”

(Higher Education Statistics Agency, UK, 2011)
