Hospice in Göteborg

Palliative care in the final stage of life

Palliative care is care to improve the quality of life for people in the final stage of life. Palliative care is a team approach to care that aims to help both the patient and the patient's family. The aim is that you should receive the best possible quality of life during the final stage of life.

You can receive palliative care at a hospice or even in hospital, at a special home or in your own home.

At a hospice the staff is specially trained in the field of palliative care. The environment is homely and there is time to talk about things that are important to you.

Hospice in Göteborg handles the coordination

We who work at Hospice in Göteborg coordinate the allocation of places at the hospices in Göteborg. When we receive your application, one of our administrators contacts you or your carers. We make an assessment of your illness and your needs. Sometimes we also make a personal visit.

The administrators at Hospice in Göteborg have regular contacts with various care-givers in the City of Göteborg. If you have any questions about hospices or about your application, you are welcome to get in touch with Hospice in Göteborg.

Applying for a place in a hospice

You can apply for a place at a hospice yourself. Send in a doctor's certificate together with your application. If you live outside of Göteborg, you can apply for a place by contacting the aid assessor in your home municipality.

What happens when you get a place in a hospice

- » When you are offered a place, you can say no and still remain in a queue as applicant. You can also make an early application that will rest until you actually need a place in a hospice.
- » First and foremost we offer places in the City of Göteborg hospice in Källtorp.
- » When you are in a hospice, we make an assessment of your care needs once a month.
- » The fee you are charged is SEK 125 per day.
- » A hospice is not regarded as accommodation, and therefore you will keep your accommodation during your stay in the hospice.
