Hvitfeldtska gymnasiet

– a modern school with traditions

The school dates back to 1647 when it was founded by Swedish Queen Christina. It was later named Hvitfeldtska in memory of Margareta Hvitfeldt, who in 1664 donated her entire fortune to make studies possible for boys without means.

Located in the very centre of Gothenburg, the historic school buildings are updated and outfitted with modern technology resources. The staff consists of highly qualified and experienced international and Swedish teachers.

The International Baccalaureate (IB) Programme started at Hvitfeldtska in 1989, and ever since our first examinations Hvitfeldtska has been one of the leading IB-schools in Sweden. Internationally well-renowned, the school fosters students who move on to top-ranking universities all over the world.

“One of the advantages of an IB curriculum is its structure and quality. It’s a coordinated Programme, well established, well known and well respected. We know the quality of IB courses, and we think the IB curriculum is terrific.”

Christoph Guttentag

Director of admissions, Duke University, USA www.ibo.org

Our Mission Statement

Hvitfeldtska is a modern school steeped in tradition and our IB Diploma Program is an inclusive and caring international learning community. We find joy in the autonomous and collaborative lifelong learning journey and value open and respectful communication that promotes understanding of ourselves and the world. We have high expectations and set challenging goals for ourselves, so that we may ultimately create a positive change in our local and global environment.

Started in 1988, the IB Diploma Program is committed to offering a course selection with breadth and depth. Throughout our program, we collaborate with all stakeholders to ensure each student reaches their highest potential.

Career possibilities

Not only is the IB Diploma well respected at universities in Sweden, but also a fantastic opportunity to get a worldwide recognised qualification and career. The IB Diploma opens many doors. Many of our graduates have been accepted into prestigious universities in Sweden such as Chalmers, Handelshögskolan, and Karolinska Institutet within a wide range of disciplines such as medicine, law, languages, political science, economics, and engineering.

Many others have chosen to study abroad in the UK, the USA, Canada, Australia, China, the Netherlands and other countries. Our programme and our staff enable students to excel. Every year several Hvitfeldtska graduates gain entry to top universities: MIT, Yale, Princeton, Oxford, Cambridge, LSE, Imperial College, and UCL to name a few.

"IB students were more likely to: enroll in a top 20 HEI; receive honours degrees or awards, in most subject areas; continue on to further studies; and be employed in graduate level positions and higher paid occupations"

(Higher Education Statistics Agency, UK, 2011)
